Public finances – $596.3 billion deficit in the PSBRs up to October

- Yesterday, the Ministry of Finance (MoF) released its public finance report for October
- Public sector borrowing requirements (Jan-Oct): $596.3bn deficit (~US$30.1bn)
- Public balance (Jan-Oct): $456.3bn deficit (~US$23.0bn)
- Primary balance (Jan-Oct): $195.8bn surplus (~US$9.9bn)
- Budget revenues rose 5.0% y/y in real terms, with an increase in oil (+35.7%), but with non-oil revenues falling (-1.0%). In the latter, we highlight the 79.9% decrease in excise taxes and the 14.3% expansion in income taxes
- Expenditures were up 4.9% y/y in real terms, driven by non-programmable spending (+7.3%). In programmable spending (+3.6%), we highlight the increase in CFE (+11.2%) and the fall in autonomous branches (-7.8%)
- In October, revenues rose 7.2% y/y, driven by oil (+34.7%). Spending climbed 19.6%, driven by non-programmable spending (+22.9%)
- The Historic Balance of Public Sector Borrowing Requirements (HBPSBR) stood at $13.5 trillion (~US$680.4bn), with 69.0% corresponding to domestic debt

PSBR accumulate a deficit of $596.3 billion so far in the year. The MoF released its public finance report for October, in which we highlight the $596.3 billion deficit in Public Sector Borrowing Requirements (PSBR) –the broadest measure of the public balance<sup>1</sup>–. This compares to the $577.7 billion deficit seen in the same period of 2021. The 'traditional' public balance posted a $456.3 billion deficit, lower than anticipated given higher revenues than expected. Finally, the primary balance had a $195.8 billion surplus (expected: -$20.0 million).

Total revenues increased 5.0% y/y in real terms. Revenues reached $5,391.3 billion in the period, $243.0 billion above budget. Oil-related income came in at $1,137.4 billion, +35.7% in real terms, mainly driven by higher oil prices. Meanwhile, tax revenues amounted to $3,168.5 billion, lower than projections by $109.7 billion. Inside, results were mostly positive, highlighting income tax to the upside (14.3%), while excise taxes had the largest decline (-79.9%), again impacted by the lack of collection of fuel taxes. Meanwhile, VAT revenues grew 0.2%. Income from government-controlled entities (IMSS and ISSSTE) came in at $437.1 billion (+6.3%), while those of CFE increased to $349.7 billion (+2.0%). Finally, non-tax revenues declined 15.2%, amounting to $298.5 billion.

&lt;sup>1</sup> The PSBRs include the sum of the Public Balance, the financial requirements of the Mexican Bank Savings Protection Institute, financial requirements of deferred investment projects, adjustments to budget records, financial requirements of the National Infrastructure Funds, program of debtors and the expected gain or loss of development banks and development funds.

Budget spending rises 4.9% y/y. Total spending reached $5,817.1 billion, $44.5 billion higher than budgeted. In this context, primary spending climbed to $5,216.9 billion, implying +4.2% y/y, with financial costs at $600.2 billion (+11.3%). Within the former, the programmable component rose 3.6%, amounting to $4,318.1 billion. Outlays from government-controlled entities (IMSS and ISSSTE) increased 1.4%, driven by IMSS (+2.8%), albeit partially offset by a decline in ISSSTE (-1.7%). Spending by Pemex grew 4.3%, although with the one from CFE even higher at +11.2%. Administrative branches rose 5.3%, with strong increases in the Ministry of Tourism (+282.7%) and in Welfare (+47.2%), although with relevant declines in Economy (-39.4%) and Energy (-35.8%). On the other hand, autonomous branches spending fell 7.8%. Inside, this was mostly explained by INE (-39.9%) and the legislative branch (-5.5%), although higher in the Federal Institute of Telecommunications (+44.3%). Lastly, non-programmable spending rose 7.3% to $898.8 billion, with participations –transfers to states under the federal tax collection agreement– up 7.3%.

Relevant statements

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1% of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

The Analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. do not maintain direct investments or through an intermediary person, in the securities or derivative instruments object of this analysis report.

Guide for investment recommendations.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.
